

do not weaken the do not call list and make it worse than it is currently. too many callers are violating the law currently and we do not need anymore. as far as the banks, there has to be a reason that someone stopped using them and why should they continuously get calls.